Unto the Mighty Populace of the Outlands do we Alrik and Salomea, King and Queen send Greetings. Thank you to all those members of our populace who worked so diligently to bring to life all the feasting events of the past month.

The Crown bids all those Outlanders wishing to vie for the honor to be Heirs to the Stag Throne, submit letters of intent no later than March 1st. Make sure to include all pertinent information as stated in Kingdom Law. Failure to do so is grounds to be withheld from Crown Tournament. Tournament format and specific guidelines pertaining to specific weapons and shield dimensions will be announced at a later date.

As the snows continue to fall across our fair Kingdom, the west winds bring the distant beat of drums. Emissary's from our cousins in Atenveldt have come before the Stag Thrones. They bring ill tidings of an impending invasion of Atenveldt by the Armies of Caid and its Allies. The Crown of Atenveldt bids the Kingdom of the Outlands to forgive past grievances, renew long dormant friendships, and march westward to aid them in their great need. The Crown having considered these matters, and recognizing the great threat to our own borders should Caid and its Allies prevail, have resolved to answer the call to War. As always our friends in Calontir have pledged their good faith and will march valiantly beside Outlands Warriors. Now let the trumpets sound from the highest mountain peaks down through the desert plains. Let all those mighty Outlanders who wish for glory undying gird themselves for battle. With axe, spear, sword, and shield the Heroes of the Outlands will write their names in blood and victory. So let fly the banners, and hearken brave Outlanders to the drums War!

Kingdom Seneshal

Greetings all,
It is that time again when we have a one track mind -- that's right, war is here. And while you may be sick of hearing it, I am going to say it again- volunteer now, volunteer often!!! There are so many things that all of us can do for the war effort, and every person brings us closer to victory!
Once you have recovered from all the fun at war, it is time to start thinking about Crown Tournament. Please look to Their Majesties' letter for information regarding entry into Crown Tournament.
The Honorable Lord Kieran Blake has announced his intent to step down as Kingdom Webminister. If you are interested in offering your services to the Kingdom in this capacity please send your letter of intent and resume to Their Majesties, Mistress Anne Bigod and THL Kieran. All of their information can be found in this issue of the OH.
I wish you all a month filled with love and war,
Ceah

White Stag

To the good subjects of the Outlands, greetings.

As the Outlands marches to WAR, heralds will march with them. My thanks to the heralds traveling to Estrella who serve by calling muster, town crying, heralding tourneys, and yes, consulting on names and armory.

As listed elsewhere in this issue, the Shire of Drygestan will be hosting a Heralds and Scribes Symposium on April 25th. Mistress Ymanya and I are seeking teachers for beginning, intermediate, and advanced classes for this event - please contact one of us if you are interested in teaching. In addition to many interesting classes, Wreath King of Arms plans to attend and host a Roadshow - making heraldic decisions live and with audience participation!

Since my last letter, Laurel has released four LoARs, in an effort to cut down the backlog of LoARs. There have been several interesting items brought up on these LoARs. In the June LoAR, the outgoing Wreath ruled on fimbriated ordinaries with overall charges. In the July LoAR, Pelican made some additions to and removals from the Alternate Titles list for French, and the outgoing Wreath ruled on difference in animal heads. In the August LoAR, Wreath called for discussion regarding difference between crosses. In the September LoAR, Wreath called for discussion on the use of "sustained" and co-primary charges. If anyone has comments for Wreath on either the August or September topics, I can pass that commentary on.

To read more about these items, or to check on submissions, view these LoARs at: http://heraldry.sca.org/loar

For anyone who is interested in heraldry, the outlands-heralds email list at Yahoo!Groups is open for anyone to join. It's a fairly low-volume group, but there are friendly folks of all knowledge levels who like answering questions and being a bit silly.

Marie de Blois

Arts & Sciences Minister

Greetings,

If you have not heard, our Northern A&S Deputy, THLady Isabel Benet has resigned her office to pursue other endeavors. I would like to personal thank her for all of her help, work and advise she has provided over the months. Thank You.

If you have not already heard, the Ministry of A&S official website is up and running, you can find it here: http://kmoas.outlands.org .
I would like to thank Their Excellencies of al-Barran and Seneschal for hosting this years Kingdom A&S event. Due to Easter Sunday it will be a one day event and be held in the Barony of al-Barran on Saturday, April 11, 2009. Please see the article posted further in the OH or at the A&S Website.
We are always looking for judges and you do not have to be a Laurel to judge. If you interested in judging this years Kingdom A&S Competition you will need to fill out a Judges Registration Form which can also be found on the A&S website and email to me.
We have teams who are working on judging forms and documentation standards. We will be updating the A&S Rules/Handbook as time progresses and will send out notices on the list as we updated it.
YIS,

Mistress Tana a l'Esprit Fort

Earl Marshal

Greetings!

There are a couple of key issues that need to be discussed.

First, I will be holding two meetings over this new year for all marshals (heavy, light, archery, siege, equestrian) to discuss issues and problems. A face-to-face meeting is productive to get different points of view. Also, this will be the time for authorizing marshals to re-new their authorization privileges. I plan for the first meeting to be held at Grand Outlandish. Please look for more details over the next few months.

Second, I am convinced that a new or redefined position is needed for the kingdom. I have encountered different requirements for archery across heavy (combat archery), light (rubber band guns), mounted archery, and horse drawn chariot archery. The archery general, rapier marshal, and the equestrian marshal are all doing a great job. But there remains a clear different slant for combat archery, rubber band guns, mounted archery, and horse drawn chariot archery. I am interested in your thoughts.

Sir Dennis the Wright

Archer General

War is just around the corner, there will be archery on three days at this year's war. We are in need of Line Marshals to help us out. We will be responsible for a whole days worth of shoots, which is six hours of running the lines, on Friday. With your help we can reduce the time required of each line marshal. If you are going to war and would be willing to help out on the line please get in touch with the Archer General or one of our fine staff.

Please check your authorization cards, make sure that you are current and up to date. The summer season is coming up quickly. Also this is a good time of the year to check your equipment, Make sure things like the strings, knocks and the bow itself are in good shape. Check your arrows and bolts for lose or missing tips, cracked wood, missing feathers and the like.

Just a reminder that all Royal Round, IKAC, IKCAC and Thrown Weapons scores need to be sent to our fine Scorekeeper Lady Constanza at stanza693@wmconnect.com. Scores are not official until they are reported to the Scorekeeper. Rank advancements can't be calculated without reported scores. The IKAC and IKCAC seasons will reopen on February 1, 2009, and will run until December 1, 2009. Thanks to everyone who participated in the various competitions throughout the year.

THC Angus Montgomery the Forrester

Cut and Thrust

Greetings to the populace,

War will soon be upon us. I realize that many of our Cut and Trust fighters have been too busy preparing for war on the heavy and light fields to put much energy into C&T. However, Atenveldt will be hosting a C&T tournament at War. I would encourage any authorized C&T fighter who is interested to enter this tournament.†Entrance in this tournament will be at the discretion of the Aten marshallate. Since we do not have Cut and Thrust tournaments in the Outlands, I would like feedback from any of our fighters who enter.

In service,
Govanen

Rapier Marshall

Greetings, Stag Rapier Fighters!
WAR is upon us! Our Queen calls us to the fields of Estrella! Fight valiantly, bravely, and, most important, honorably! Comport yourself well, on and off the field; you are representatives of Her Majesty.
After Estrella, ready your blades for a Sworded Affaire, in the Barony of al-Barran, on April 4th.

Yours in Service,
Don Ulrich, Kingdom Rapier Marshall

Webminister

Greetings to the mighty Outlands!

It's been an interesting couple of years working as webminister for the kingdom, and we've undergone quite a few changes in the course of that time, both with the Outlands web site and at Corporate level.
I had requested an extension on my warrant from Their Majesties so I could deal with whatever changes were coming down the line at Corporate for the Webministry, and the extension was most graciously granted. Now that the changes have been finalized (which translates to absolutely no change for us, whatsoever), it is my intent to seek a replacement for the office of the Kingdom Webminister.
In a perfect world, the ideal candidate will be somewhat familiar with managing Windows 2003 servers, as we own our own server, as well as troubleshooting Microsoft SQL 2005, web sites, Dot Net Nuke and email servers. Being as we're not in a perfect world, you should be somewhat familiar with web sites and basics of graphic design.
Once a candidate has been selected, I will set them up as my deputy for a month for any necessary training, and then turn the reins over to them.
If you are interested in applying for an interesting and high-profile job within the SCA that still lets you loaf around the house in your pajamas, please send a letter of intent briefly describing past experience within the SCA and a mundane resume with any applicable experience to Their Majesties, the Kingdom Chronicler and myself by February 23, 2008. Email is, of course, preferred.

With Regards,
Kieran Blake

Minister of Children

Greetings to the great populace of the Outlands

There are many, many youth activities planned for all age levels at Estrella War, but again they need volunteer help. If you have a youth going to Estrella or you just enjoy helping with our youth, we hope you will volunteer some hours to support these learning and fun opportunities. To volunteer in advance for helping at the Children's/Youth Center, please contact Lady Ilora (Laura Hopf), the Atenveldt Kingdom Youth Minister, at LHopf32@msn.com.
It is important that you look at the Estrella Youth Activities webpages, before going to Estrella for valuable information. The website, http://www.estrellawar.org/Activities/ChildrensActivities.aspx provides links to information such as:
*Attending With Minors (required minors paperwork, curfew and guidelines that parents and youth must follow)
*Guidelines for Parents and Local Groups (parental responsibilities)
*Atenveldt Policy for Addressing Transgressions by Minors
*Plans and hours for the Children/Youth Centers at Estrella, Wednesday thru Sunday (ages 0-4 years and 5-9 years)
*Plans and hours for the Youth Classes, Wednesday thru Sunday (ages 10-17)
*The Youth Challenge (friendly competition in A&S, Youth Combat, Volunteer Hours and Youth Games Tournament)
*Teen Center evening plans (7-10:30pm daily)
*Minors Curfews and Parental Responsibilities

Any youth wishing to participate in Youth Combat scenarios 2-5pm, Thursday thru Sunday at Atenveldt, will need to follow the Atenveldt Youth Weapons Standards (Thursday-Saturday) and the Caid Youth Weapons Standards (Sunday), available from their Kingdom websites. More information is available at http://www.estrellawar.org/

In service to the Outlands,
Jayne Barber

The year is 1573 in Bella Firenze. The great minds and most august men (and women) of Florence will be there assembled in order to restore to glory the great art and music of ancient Greece.

An open call is made to all humanists, artisans, musicians, poets and intellectuals with an interest in 16th century Florence that we may assemble to discuss, practice and guide trends in all the arts. Arts of all kinds will be taught, displayed and evaluated. Fighters will learn techniques and theories of the time. There will be classes and performances in dance, music and theatre. Orators, poets and intellectuals of all walks will have an opportunity to present themselves.

Arts and Science entries are welcome and requested. They may be presented for display only (no documentation required), or for evaluation/commentary (documentation requested). This is not an A&S competition; however, volunteers are requested to evaluate entries.

Rewards will be given for: the best recreation of any art of ancient Greece through the lens of 16th century Florence; the most beautifully given oration, whether it be poetry, prose or treatise; and the most period 16th century Florentine garb in both design and construction.

FROM THE SABLE CHAMBER

The Lover's Cipher

February is so often referred to as the month of love. It also is of course the month of war (or at least the Estrella War). It seems therefore a month to have war and love and to perhaps find love at war. Ah but how is a poor scadian supposed to secretly meet with a paramour at war? More interestingly, is it possible to do so in a period manner and not rely upon modernity to do so?

Fortunately, there is an ancient text that deals with this exact topic. It is in fact a well known text - the Kama Sutra. Written by the Indian scholar Vatsyayana it details love, copulation, marriage, and also mlecchita-vikalpa or secret writing. Afterall, how does a courtesan communicate with certain men?

A proposed method for writing secret messages was to pair letters and then use the letter's partner for the cipher. For example, taking the English alphabet we might have the following:

A B C D E F G H I J K L M
N O P Q R S T U V W X Y Z

To encipher the subtitle of this column we would write GUR YBIREF PVCURE. This can obviously be cracked with frequency analysis but has the added flaw of being able to find two letters for the price of one. Nonetheless, it does represent one of the early methods for writing between lovers and perhaps may come in handy for you when you attend war in a few short weeks. Or perhaps you will find another period cipher with which to communicate such as Alberti's multi-alphabetic cipher.

But that fellow Outlanders, is a cipher for another day.

Note: There is an 1883 translation of the Kama Sutra by Sir Richard Burton available at http://www.indohistory.com/kamasutra.html.

LAST COLUMN'S ANSWER: O mighty stronghold of my salvation, to praise You is a delight. Restore my House of Prayer and there we will bring a thanksgiving offering.When You will have prepared the slaughter for the blaspheming foe,Then I shall complete with a song of hymn the dedication of the Altar. Bare Your holy arm and hasten the End for salvation -Avenge the vengeance of Your servants' blood from the wicked nation.For the triumph is too long delayed for us, and there is no end to days of evil, Repel the Red One in the nethermost shadow and establish for us the seven shepherds. (Two verses from the 13th century Channukah song Maoz Tzur).
